Do We Really Have All We Need?

When it comes to Christianity and the Bible, the questions seem to be endless. Not only do we inquire often about God's will for our lives, we often debate with our friends and neighbors concerning what exactly God's desire is for us and how we go about pleasing Him. Some say that the Lord directs their lives by laying it on their heart, while others proclaim that it is only the written word that gives us direction. With so many different ideas out there, how is a person to find the true path in which to take?

The Apostle Peter writes, "Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue" (2 Peter 1:2-3). Note that Peter by inspiration says God has given us "all things" that pertain to our physical lives as well as the spiritual. By gaining knowledge about Jesus Christ and the redemption plan of salvation we obtain instruction for living and preparing for eternity. So, where do I turn to find the answers to all of my questions? Yes, you guessed it, they are in the Bible.

What if I can't find the answer I'm looking for or God simply chose not to share those things with me? What then? Even though we are encouraged by the Scriptures to grow in knowledge (2 Peter 3:18), there may be times we have to be content with the answers God gives (or doesn't give). Remember, God said He would "supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus" and "having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work" (Phil. 4:19; 2 Cor. 9:8). Surely the Lord has sufficiently given us all the information we need to live a good life and serve Him well.

Back—

to the Future

From House to House Heart to Heart

Churches of Christ are committed to restoring the teaching and practice of New Testament Christianity in its purity.

We believe "the seed is the word of God" (Luke 8:11), and that it will produce in the twenty-first century what it produced in the first century—undenominational Christians, people who are members of the church we read of in the New Testament.

We speak where the Bible speaks and remain silent where the Bible is silent, call Bible things by Bible names, and do Bible things the Bible way (1 Peter 4:11).

We have no hierarchy, no earthly headquarters, and no creed book or church manual written by men. Christ is our only creed and the Bible is our only guide.

We believe with all our hearts that we can be the true and faithful church of our Lord in the present age.

We invite all to come with us as we strive to go back to the Bible, back to the God of the Bible, back to the Christ of the Bible, and back to the church of the Bible.

We believe that going back to the Bible is the only future that the church has.

Will you join us in this great undertaking?
