Despite Your Sin

There is an interesting prophecy in the book of Isaiah. Speaking about Jesus, the prophet says: "It is too small a thing for you to be my servant to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back those of Israel I have kept. I will also make you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring my salvation to the ends of the earth" (Isaiah 49.6, NRSV).

Many of the Jews of the first century didn't understand that passage (or they didn't want to understand). They were disappointed when Jesus refused to fight against Rome. Instead, Jesus spoke of liberation from sin and evil. Of course, true Christianity offers the greatest freedom. Many people have been free from political enslavement only to continue to be slaves to sin.

James 2 tells us that Jesus loves all people. It doesn't matter if you are rich or poor, it doesn't matter what your skin color is, or where you were born, or what language you speak. Jesus loves you!

Jesus loves all people. And this applies much more than just to position in society. This means that no matter how sinful you have been in your life, Jesus still loves you. He wants you to be part of his family. He loves you so much that he willingly died for you. He did this despite all of your short-comings and sins – that you might live a wonderful and joyous life now and forever.

TEXT MESSAGES FROM GOD

by House to House Heart to Heart

If you need comfort from God, see His text message in 2 Corinthians 1:3-7.
If you want a reminder that God is in control, look in 1 John 4:4.
If you want reassurance that God loves you, look in Romans 5:8.
If you want God's advice about friends, see 1 Corinthians 15:33.
If you wonder if you should participate in something, see Philippians 4:8.
If you have been unmotivated in your job, look in Colossians 3:22.
If you want parental advice, look for God's text in Proverbs 22:6.
If you want to be a better husband, see God's text message in Ephesians 5:25-33.
If you want to be a better wife, see God's text in Ephesians 5:22-24.
If you are looking for patience, see God's text message in 1 Thessalonians 5:14.
If you look for hope, see 1 Peter 1:3-5.
If you are looking to be more humble, look in James 4:6.
Want to control your language? Look in 1 Peter 3:10.
Need to stop anger? See Ephesians 4:26-27.
If you have been worried lately, look at God's text message in Philippians 4:6-7.
If you need a reminder of God's mercy, look in 1 Peter 1:3-4.
If you need motivation to keep pressing on, look in Hebrews 12:1-2.
If you desire to be saved, see God's text message in Acts 2:38.
