Putting Regrets and Disappointments Behind Us

Instead of wallowing in regret, Christians should always remember that "godliness with contentment is great gain" (1 Timothy 6:6)

The name Pete Best might not initially jump out at you, but the phrase "The Fifth Beatle" might jog your memory. Best was the original drummer for The Beatles, and was fired on August 16, 1962, by the other members of the group shortly after signing their first recording contract.

Decades later, Best couldn't stop pondering his fate. He once commented, "I still feel shocked. I'll never know why it had to happen to me." He claimed he was fired because of his popularity and good looks, but the band said it was because of personality clashes and dissatisfaction with his drumming skills. Whatever the case, his megastar near miss would haunt him for years.

Dealing with disappointment is tough. Things don't always go as we would hope in life. Solomon once wrote, "I returned and saw under the sun that—The race is not to the swift, Nor the battle to the strong, Nor bread to the wise, Nor riches to men of understanding, Nor favor to men of skill; But time and chance happen to them all" (Ecc. 9:11).

Disappointments will come to all! What matters most is how we deal with setbacks. Instead of wallowing in regret, Christians should always remember that "godliness with contentment is great gain" (1 Timothy 6:6). If we put God's kingdom first and work toward righteous goals, we can always be assured that the Father recognizes our contributions (1 Cor. 15:58), even if the world doesn't.

We can put disappointment and regrets behind us and "press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 3:14). So trust God, press forward, and be thankful for His many blessings.

TEXT MESSAGES FROM GOD

by House to House Heart to Heart

If you need comfort from God, see His text message in 2 Corinthians 1:3-7.

If you want a reminder that God is in control, look in 1 John 4:4.

If you want reassurance that God loves you, look in Romans 5:8.

If you want God's advice about friends, see 1 Corinthians 15:33.

If you wonder if you should participate in something, see Philippians 4:8.

If you have been unmotivated in your job, look in Colossians 3:22.

If you want parental advice, look for God's text in Proverbs 22:6.

If you want to be a better husband, see God's text message in Ephesians 5:25-33.

If you want to be a better wife, see God's text in Ephesians 5:22-24.

If you are looking for patience, see God's text message in 1 Thessalonians 5:14.

If you look for hope, see 1 Peter 1:3-5.

If you are looking to be more humble, look in James 4:6.

Want to control your language? Look in 1 Peter 3:10.

Need to stop anger? See Ephesians 4:26-27.

If you have been worried lately, look at God's text message in Philippians 4:6-7.

If you need a reminder of God's mercy, look in 1 Peter 1:3-4.

If you need motivation to keep pressing on, look in Hebrews 12:1-2.

If you desire to be saved, see God's text message in Acts 2:38.

God's text messages can be accessed at any time.

The more time we spend "texting" with God, the stronger our relationship with Him will become
