Some Things You've Just Got to Do Now

Thomas Carlyle was a famous writer. His wife Jane died suddenly of a heart attack while he was away in Scotland delivering an inaugural address as Lord Rector of Edinburgh University. History says that Carlyle was so busy with his writing that some days he wouldn't even take the time out to visit his wife. After her funeral, Carlyle returned to her bedroom and sat down next to her bed and began to read from her diary. He was startled as he read what she wrote. She said, "Yesterday, he spent an hour with me, and it was like being in heaven." She wrote, "I love him so." On the next page, she wrote, "I have listened all day to hear his steps in the hall. But now it is late, and I guess he won't come today." Carlyle read on for another half dozen pages or so. He then threw the book down and rushed back to the cemetery in the rain. His friends later found him in the cemetery, facedown in the mud of her grave. He was weeping and repeatedly saying, "If I had only known, if I had only known." That day was the beginning of the saddest part of his life. In his own diary, there is a sentence that is said to be the saddest in English literature. It goes this way. "Oh, if I had you yet but for five minutes by my side that I might tell you all."

Some things you've got to do now while you have the opportunity. Such as it is with our salvation, Saul of Tarsus was asked these words in Acts 22:16, "And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on his name."

Today is all you have; tomorrow may not come. When the opportunity presents itself, you've got to do it now because you may not get that opportunity again.

From House to House Heart to Heart

THE IMPERSHABLE SEED
Phil Sanders

"Since you have in obedience to the truth purified your souls for a sincere love of the brethren, fervently love one another from the heart, for you have been born again not of seed which is perishable but imperishable, that is, through the living and enduring word of God" 1 Peter 1:22-23

The word of God cannot be changed or deleted. "Forever, O LORD, Your word is settled in heaven" (Psalm 119:89). We know God's unchanging and imperishable word is to teach us the truth. Peter reassures us that what the Lord said in the first century He says today. "The word of the Lord remains forever. And this word is the good news that was preached to you" (1 Peter 1:25). The Lord Jesus Himself said, "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away" (Matthew 24:35).

We are purified from our sins in our obedience to the truth and born again by an imperishable seed. The Lord Jesus defined the seed of the kingdom as the word of God (Luke 8:11). The gospel seed planted in good and honest hearts brings forth fruit. We must hear that word and hold it fast in our hearts (Luke 8:15).

When we hear and obey the truth out of faith, this imperishable seed is planted in our hearts. Romans 6:4-5 (KJV) says, "Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection." Forgiveness of sins and newness of life occur when we obey the truth in repentance and baptism (Acts 2:38).
